Editorial Review

About the Author

Big wilderness, the promise of snow in winter and a husband born in Villingen lured Kerry from London to the Black Forest four years ago. When not on the road, Kerry can be found hiking, cycling or cross-country skiing in the woods and hills close to her home. On recent research she was delighted to rediscover Baden-Wurttemberg, from canoeing on Lake Constance to testing (well it would be rude not to!) Black Forest cake in Triberg. Kerry's incurably itchy feet have taken her to some 40 countries, inspiring numerous travel articles, online features and around 15 guidebooks, including Lonely Planet's guides to Austria, Switzerland, Munich, Bavaria & the Black Forest and Portugal.
