About the Author

In 1995 Nick opened The Nick Chavez Salon in Beverly Hills, California. But the road that took him to the world's most famous zip code was paved with adventure. Nick grew up in a large Mexican American family outside of Yuma, Arizona. The son of a farmer, and third cousin of political activist Cesar Chavez, Nick's first job was as a ranch hand and stable boy. Here is where he discovered his talent for styling hair. For extra money, Nick taught himself how to groom horses' manes and tails for shows. He became so talented that the money he earned grooming allowed him to keep and show his own horses - something he still does today.

Nick took his talent from grooming show horses' to styling hair for his family and friends. After graduating from high school, he moved to LA and began a career as a hairdresser. On a fluke while visiting Paris, Nick walked into a model agency and landed a career as a runway model for high-profile designers such as Yves St. Laurent, Thierry Mugler, Swatch, Piaget, and Valentino. After moving back to the United States, Nick landed a recurring role on Young & the Restless and Hollywood Detectives.

But hairdressing was his true passion and he soon returned to Beverly Hills where he perfected his skills and built up his clientele. After years of working with a multitude of hair products, Nick decided to create his own hair care line that would work on all hair types and ethnicity. Today, Nick Chavez Perfect Plus(r) is the most successful beauty line and e-commerce leader on QVC, Inc.
