Les Secrets de la peinture chinoise By Pauline Cherrett

La peinture chinoise commence par la calligraphie, art ancestral de manier le pinceau. De là, viennent sans doute la pureté des lignes, le dépouillement et l'élégance de la composition qui retiennent le regard et ont fait la réputation des estampes chinoises dans le monde entier. Dans ce livre, l'auteur propose à l'artiste occidental une méthode facile d'accès et cependant fidèle à la tradition chinoise.

Elle présente tout d'abord les instruments traditionnels, "les quatre trésors": pinceau, papier, bâton à encre et pierre à encre, explique comment s'en servir, quel mouvement adopter. Elle propose ensuite des exemples d'estampes anciennes et contemporaines en les regroupant par thèmes (fleurs, arbres, animaux, paysages) et les commente soigneusement, faisant entrer l'amateur occidental dans leur symbolisme. En tout, 150 illustrations tout en couleurs.
