Editorial Review

Review

“Horse Tales from Heaven surprised and delighted me. Eloquent vignettes are presented that are so real, so crisp that it often felt like I was actually there. I loved the openness of the author, the Scripture references and the prayers. I highly recommend Horse Tales from Heaven.”

?Pastor Ron Beckham, Senior Pastor, Friday Study Ministries

“Rebecca's writings reflect a love for God that seems to permeate her approach to her everyday life and shows that she has a passion to live her life close to Him and for Him. It was interesting to me to see how often she was alone in the wilderness but her attitude never exhibited loneliness and she always seemed to know that God was close at hand.”

?Wayne Brooks

“This book was inspiring. I often found myself literally wide eyed with wonder at her descriptions of the landscapes and how she handled the various struggles, emotionally and physically she encountered. Through prayer, and an unflinching look at her own opportunities for growth through these challenges, the reader gets a sense of her character and grit. Being a Christian myself, and from a more congested area of our Nation, the vastness she describes leaves me wishing with all my heart that my horse and I?and God?could ride off with her on one of her 4 hour treks through the wilderness. Her book put me right there. I loved this book!”

?Terry deHaan

“Whether a horse lover or not, these stories are great examples of perseverance, faith, and the joy that can come from the simplest experiences in life.”

?Thomas Rogers
